1. Uttarakhand Govt abolishes system of revenue police (Jan. 3, 2023)

Uttarakhand Govt abolishes system of revenue police

The Uttarakhand government has abolished the revenue/Patwari policing system in the state. This was notified by the Pushkar Singh Dhama government on 3 January 2023. All the revenue villages will now be under the regular policing system.

According to the Chief Minister's Office the law and order in 1,800 revenue villages of Uttarakhand will now be handled by the state police.

It was introduced by the British in the hilly state 150 years back. Under the system the civil officials/patwari of the Revenue department had the power to investigate and arrest the offenders just like police.

According to the government the revenue police lacked the necessary skill required for criminal investigations hence a need was felt to transfer the areas of revenue police to regular police in a phased manner.
