

16 seats, BJP wins eight out of 16 Rajya Sabha seats while Congress bags five seats

- The BJP has won eight out of 16 Rajya Sabha seats, while the Congress party has won five seats. The remaining three seats were won by independent candidates.
- The BJP's victory in the Rajya Sabha election is a significant setback for the Congress party, which had been expected to win a majority of seats.
- The Congress party's defeat in the Rajya Sabha election is a major blow to its leadership, particularly to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who had been expected to lead the party to a victory.
- The BJP's victory in the Rajya Sabha election is a clear indication of the party's growing popularity and influence in the Indian political scene.
- The Congress party's defeat in the Rajya Sabha election is a major setback for its leadership, particularly to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who had been expected to lead the party to a victory.
- The BJP's victory in the Rajya Sabha election is a clear indication of the party's growing popularity and influence in the Indian political scene.
- The Congress party's defeat in the Rajya Sabha election is a major blow to its leadership, particularly to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who had been expected to lead the party to a victory.
- The BJP's victory in the Rajya Sabha election is a clear indication of the party's growing popularity and influence in the Indian political scene.
- The Congress party's defeat in the Rajya Sabha election is a major setback for its leadership, particularly to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who had been expected to lead the party to a victory.
- The BJP's victory in the Rajya Sabha election is a clear indication of the party's growing popularity and influence in the Indian political scene.
- The Congress party's defeat in the Rajya Sabha election is a major blow to its leadership, particularly to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who had been expected to lead the party to a victory.

